LOCAL NEWS.

MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 11.

THE RIVER-THE ICE, &c .- The heavy rain of last Saturday, was followed at night by a gale from the Northwest, which loosened the ice in the river, and set it to running. The ice at the mouth of Hunting Creek was completely cleared out, and piled up on the Maryland flats. Yesterday the weather turned cold, and in the shade, water froze hard. The steamer Keyport which left Washington for Aquia Creek, on Saturday last, reached that place in safety, and arrived up again yesterday evening. She reports that the river was clear of the Keyport and the tug boats, which run in postponed. connection with the Orange and Alexandria railroad, between this city and Washington, was tightly frozen over this morning, and persons walked over it, and crossed the river opposite this city. In fact so solidly frozen was the Potomac this morning, that the tugs Gov. Curtin and Katie Wise, which left here at six o'clock, with the through passengers who arrived by the morning train from the South, after spending three hours in fruitless attempts to reach Washington, were compelled to put back when within two or three hundred yards of the Arsenal wharf-the Gov. Curtin breaking her rudder and being disabled by the ice which was jemmed at that point. The returned passengers either stopped here or went on by the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown railroad. The steam tug Rescue has been substituted for the Gov. Curtin, and with the Katie Wise, will make another attempt to force a passage to Washington this evening, leaving this city at five oclock. Hunting Creek is again to-day, frozen over from its mouth to Cameron run. The wind of Saturday night blew down several chimnies in different parts of the city, and one of the few remaining large trees in Peyton's grove. The Occoquan Mills have been seriously injured by the running ice in Occoquan Creek, caused by the thaw of last week. The steamer Cahill, bound from Baltimore for this port with freight, and caught by the freeze in Britton's bay last December, succeeded in clearing herself last week, and put back to Baltimore, at which port she has safely arrived.

CHANNEL DEEPENED.-The Washington Star of Saturday, says: "Some parties last evening reconnoitered the new channel, and found from Easby's wharf (foot of G street) to the Long Bridge, that the current had washed out a channel of eight feet it will be a great improvement, and will enhance the value of property generally.

The ice remains packed to a considerable height against the Long Bridge, and in case of a flood or sudden thaw there is considerable danger of more of that structure being carriel away. Indeed, it is said by parties who walked over the bridge this morning, that the timbers on the Virginia side were sprung considerably during the night."

MANASSAS GAP BAILROD .- An important scheme to the Valley is the proposition to transfer the franchises vested in the Manassas Gap railroad company to the Orange & Alexandria railroad company. President Marshall offers to sell to the latter, as we are informed by reliable authority, "provided the M. G. railroad be made up the Valley to Harrisonburg within a short time; and Mr. Barbour, President of the O. & A. railroad, is very anxious to purchase, provided the Legislature will grant him the privilege; and a bill has been framed for that purpose." - Shenandoah Her.

APPLICATION FOR AN INJUNCTION. - An application praying that James S. French may be enjoined and restrained from slandering or easting doubts upon the title of the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad Compa ny, was before Judge Underwood, at the United States District Court Room, this morning, but | ing at 20c a pound. argument upon it was deferred until Monday next, the 18th instant.

HOUSE PILLAGED.—The three-story brick house on the corner of Wolfe and Water streets, formerly occupied by Mrs. Emerson, but now tenantless, was entered a few nights since, and despoiled of all the locks on its different doors. Stealing now is the order of the day, or rather night, and nothing but a red hot stove is safe.

FIRST STURGEON OF THE SEASON.—Yesterday morning, two youthful sturgeons were exhibited upon the stands of Brown & Stutz, in the Fish market. Both shad and sturgeon have been taken remarkably early this season, and it can only be accounted for by the fact that the weather has been very cold, and the finny specimens were anxious to be taken in out of the wet.—Rich. Examiner.

FREEDMENS' AFFAIRS .- The Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau in Fairfax Co., Va., states that fair contracts for the ensuing year have very generally been made throughout that county, and that there is now very little surplus labor there. Industrious men are said to find land owners very well disposed to let their land on shares.

ROBBERY.—The meat house of Capt. Thos. Travis, whose residence is in the neighborhood of the machine shop of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, was entered by thieves on Saturday night last, and robbed of its entire
